

PENNSYLVANIA LONG TERM CARE ALLIANCE

The Pennsylvania Long Term Care Alliance members represent the major Carriers in the Long Term Care Insurance industry. The following companies have years of successful experience, high ratings and proven customer credibility. They are clearly committed to their policyholders through innovative policy benefits, competitive premium pricing and exceptional claims-paying history.

Genworth Financial is the nation's leading Long Term Care Insurance company, exclusively endorsed by AARP. Genworth helped pioneer long term care insurance more than 34 years ago, and today serves the needs of more than one million policyholders.

Mutual of Omaha

Mutual Of Omaha has been in business for almost one-hundred years. As a company that has been helping people plan for their future long-term care needs since 1987, Mutual of Omaha is a wise choice for individual long-term care insurance.

Prudential Insurance division conducts its business through the Individual Life, Individual Annuities and Group Insurance segments. This three-tier system allows Prudential to cover all your group life, long-term and short-term group disability, long term care, and corporate- and trust-owned life insurance.

www.longtermcarepa.com